

Transcription of Heartland for Children video with Jessica:

Jessica: My name is Jessica, I like little kids and that's it.

Heartland for children: What are some of your favorite things that you like to do?

Jessica: Play football

Heartland for children: Don't you like art?

Jessica: No not anymore. I mean I like to color, just not all that Heartland for children: So with football, do you like to play football or watch?

Jessica: Yes, I like not actually play games but actually throw the football

Heartland for children: Do you have a favorite football team?

Jessica: Yes- The Gators, and the Dolphins, and the Buccaneers.

Heartland for children: So tell us a little bit about what your dream job would be?

Jessica: I want to be a Veterinarian and I want to own my own pet shop

Heartland for children: So you must like animals then?

Jessica: I love animals and I love little kids

Heartland for children: And what are some of your favorite animals?

Jessica: Cats, dogs, sharks. I like sharks, I like gators. I like all of the dangerous ones

Heartland for children: With an adoptive family, what kind of qualities or things do you think is important?

Jessica: I want it to single mom if that's possible, dogs and cats or snakes, little kids—I don't like older kids, I like little kids. And then, we can go to adventures all the time. Like for like Summer break we go to the beach or the park, well not the park, but like California!

Heartland for children: So you like to go out and experience new things!

Jessica: Yeah!

Heartland for children: If you could have any superpower, what would it be and why?

Jessica: To fly! Because I would go up in the sky. Hey that rhymed! And see all of the birdies and stuff

Heartland for children: Is there anything else you want to tell the world about yourself ? About what makes you super awesome?

Jessica: No
